TAKE ACTION FOR PALESTINIAN RIGHTS

Queer Cinema for Palestine is a global film event, highlighting the key role of art in resistance and the struggle for liberation.

Queer Cinema for Palestine is also about effective solidarity with Palestinians through strategic Boycott, Divestment and Sanctions (BDS) campaigns for Palestinian rights.

A growing number of queer and trans collectives are working to ensure our networks, spaces and umbrella organizations are free of ties to Israel's genocide in Gaza and its underlying apartheid regime.

Ways you can engage:

- Campaign for ethical Pride policies excluding companies and institutions complicit in Israel's crimes against Palestinians;
- Ensure local, national or global LGBTQIA+ organizations/networks commit to being free of ties to Israeli apartheid, including by becoming an Apartheid Free Zone;
- Work to exclude LGBT+ groups with ties to the Israeli government or that engage in pinkwashing Israeli apartheid and genocide from international bodies;
- Join the campaign to Boycott Eurovision as long as apartheid Israel participates;
- Reject Israeli funding, refuse collaborations with complicit Israeli institutions, and refuse to pinkwash or normalize apartheid Israel;
- Boycott LGBTQIA+ tourism in apartheid Israel and pinkwashing events like Tel Aviv Pride and the TLVFest film festival. Encourage filmmakers to sign the Queer Cinema for Palestine pledge;
- Raise awareness, organize Palestine blocs in Pride marches or educational events about Israeli pinkwashing.
